Walking directions to the CCBBI

If you have any trouble at all, please call us XXX-XXX-XXXX and we will have someone assist you in locating the Center.

1.) Enter the street on the John H Herrick side of the garage, then turn right.

Leaving the garage:

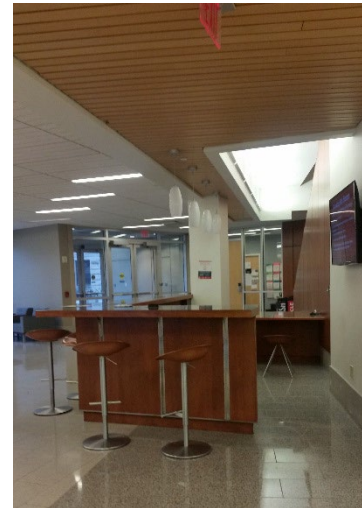

Walking to the lab on John H Herrick Dr:

2.) The CCBBI is located in the Psychology Building, the silver and white building diagonally across the roundabout (see photo on right). The entrance to the building faces Cunz Hall, the beige concrete and glass building directly in front of you. The entrance to the Psychology Building is indicated by the box on the photo.

3.) Once you have entered the building, continue down the hallway toward the reception desk.

4.) To the left of the reception desk is the Psychology Building Lobby. Please wait here for a lab member to escort you the remainder of the way.
